MASTER'S MESSAGE

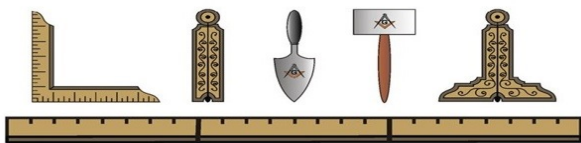

“I believe a layman reading our ritual would gain little understanding from it. He might get some thoughts about King Solomon’s Temple and glean some of the more superficial meanings from things like our working tools.

Unless he was prepared to sit down and look carefully at each ceremony and the various sections of each he would be left with the feeling that we were a strange institution with not very much to us at all.

But we know differently, that it is by repeated efforts and study of those myriad symbols that our principals and tenets are established and passed on to those who espouse the Masonic cause.

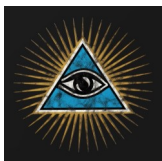

It is only by repeated efforts and constant study that we can at last produce the perfect ashlar, a stone of true die, fit for the eternal Temple.”

- Br. Ross Dalziell in May '01 Waikato Lodge of Research No.445, New Zealand Proceedings

Brothers, there is so much to learn from our ritual. This next month is filled with such light, both with presentations and the thought and emotion invoking Fellowcraft Degree. Come to Lodge, listen to the words and appreciate those lessons that our forefathers have left for us.

Raul Maldonado—
Master of the Lodge

As we enter 2020, Our vision is clear...resurrect our reputation, beginning this year.

Hard work and dedication are foundational stones - to build a new edifice on, rebuilding our home.

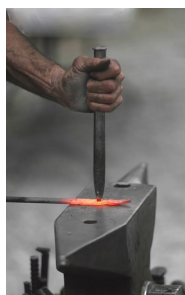

From the top to the bottom, from the Kitchen to the East-Communication, Continuity, and Cohesion are the Keys.

Iron sharpens Iron til' we're shining bright as Gold- From the Darkness we are rising, Masons young and Masons old.

If you build it, they will come- all our working tools in hand.

May the Architect above watch us form as One again.

~Will Sikora III- Junior Warden
