Perseverance

Noun. Persistence in going something despite difficulty or delay in achieving success.

Brothers,

Getting to your goal takes perseverance. It takes hard work and persistence. Dedication, tenacity and a willfulness to keep shining even when defeat feels imminent.

Currently, I know that things feel dower and dismal, but they aren't. There is light at the end of the tunnel. It is another obstacle for all of us to overcome. In our own ways and manner; some financial, some health, some physical and so on. It is how we continue steering towards our personal objectives and desires that make us victorious over it.

Reflect upon all the different things in your life that have happened and how they got you closer to your pursuit. While pushing forward into the second half of 2020 use the latter as a beacon of light with a positive steppingstone. Take the good and let it outshine the bad.

Despite the hardships of 2020 thus far, your officers were able to adapt and overcome within our lodge; virtual meetings, thoughtful trestle boards, creating a new club for esoteric discussion, re-instated 30 brothers, lodge improvements, a new website and more.

All things are possible through perseverance. Quitting isn't an option when you work towards something you want. Your lodge wants to be the definition in action. Pushing through no matter what. I am very lucky and honored to be a part of Nutley Lodge #25 and I believe in all of you and your ability to prevail.

Br. G. Daniel Lukowiak
Senior Warden of the Lodge
