MASTER'S MESSAGE

Community - Noun
A Unified Body of Individuals

My Brothers,

In today's culture I feel like this word has been lost. We have strayed from caring for one another in so many ways and we have let 'I' advance further than 'We', in our list of priorities.

There are many accomplishments that we reach on our own. Every change, however, that has altered the course of human existence, has been done by a group working for a common cause.

We should be grateful that as Masons we have one of the few true communities of Brothers left in the World. This is all the more reason to reflect on being a Brother and what that means.

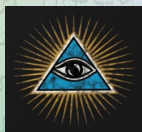

Asking ourselves how we can be better has been a stepping stone towards making genuine change in our lives. Further progress can now be made with the question how can I further help my fellow man. Not just myself, but my neighbor, my Lodge, my community.

Right now, many families are in need, financially and spiritually. Reach out and see how that friend you know is down and out, is doing, donate some time with a community group. We all have the power to help in so many ways and monetary donations are far from the only avenues of aid.

As Masons, men and citizens we should be using our God-given power to do better for ourselves and for one another.

"Every human being has a claim upon your kind offices"

Br. G. Daniel Lukowiak
Master of the Lodge

MASTER'S NOTES

Brothers, until Covid restrictions are relaxed, our in-person meetings are limited to the Officers only.

Our ZOOM meetings, however, have no capacity limit! If you need help figuring out how to get on, just give me a call.

March 1st - Officers Only

We have chosen to look at our current trials as opportunities for improvement and will be rehearsing the EA degree.

The Gavel Sounds at 7:00
