SENIOR WARDEN'S MESSAGE

“Man is given by Nature, a gift, and that gift is the privilege of labor. Through labor he learns all things.” - Br. Manly P. Hall

Brethren,

We have reached the half way point of 2021. We have faced certain challenges, but for the most part we have returned to normalcy.

It is evident that the cement of brotherly love which unites us is stronger than ever. Freemasonry will never die. It is up to each individual Lodge to do their part and tend to their Brothers' needs.

It is the duty of The Worshipful Master and his Wardens to make sure the craft are paid their wages. There is much hard work and sacrifice that goes into sustaining a healthy camaraderie and genuine love for our fraternity.

Do the work Brothers, and the return will be ten fold. Develop a plan, stick to it and pass down the wisdom to the Brothers that are to follow you. We enter Freemasonry as a rough ashlar with aspirations of perfecting ourselves, just to give ourselves away.

Selflessness is a forgotten term in modern society. Live each day to be better than the last. Apply the Golden Rule as often as possible. The “dark” months of Summer are here. I was never a fan of the term “dark for Summer”. As Masons, we are a walking, living, breathing beacon of light until the Grand Architect of the Universe calls us home to that Lodge on High.

Do your due diligence and reflect on the months that were, and prepare yourselves for the months that are soon to be.

God Bless you all My Brothers. Much Love and Light from me to you.

Br. Will Sikora

Senior Warden of the Lodge
