REFLECTION

“So crucify the ego, before it's far too late
 And leave behind this place
 so negative and blind and cynical
 And you will come to find that we are all one mind
 Capable of all that's imagined and all conceivable
 So let the light touch you so that the words spill through
 And let the past break through,
 bringing out our hope and reason
 Before we pine away”
 -Maynard James Keenan

Brothers, watch the weather change.
 The colors of the leaves.
 The tide as it ebbs and flows.
 The Sunrise. The Sunset.
 The Soft Breeze.

Stay enamored by the various offerings of life.
 Reflect on 2021 thus far.. How was it? What was good? What was bad or even awful? What was excellent?

Learning from our mistakes and making the changes necessary to overcome the various tribulations of life are what make us better men and give us the experience necessary to help ourselves grow. It gives us the capability to spread our own cement of knowledge to others.

Let your words shine through your actions.
 Watch the weather change.

Br. G. Daniel Lukowiak
 Worshipful Master of the Lodge
