A Creed

- Edwin Markham

There is a destiny that makes us brothers
None goes his way alone;
All that we send into the lives of others
Comes back into our own.

I care not what his temples or his creeds,
One thing holds firm and fast -
That into his fateful heap of days and deeds
The soul of man is cast.

SENIOR WARDENS MESSAGE

Brothers,

Please never lose sight of why you became a Mason. We are Free thinkers & Free builders. Freemasonry crosses all religious boundaries and brings together men of all countries, races, beliefs, opinions, customs and traditions.

We are not exempt from the rigors of life or the unforeseen variables that may arise. Contrary to the profane, we hold ourselves to a higher standard due to the journey we have traveled and the knowledge that we have been given.

It is our responsibility to contribute to society, and be not a useless member of it.

Let's not lose sight of this. Each Lodge should strive to become a hive of collective consciousness with a unified intelligence.

I am not suggesting that each of us does not have his own opinion, but rather that in order to make the Fraternity and the world a better place, we must keep the FREE in Freemason. We must never allow ourselves to be hoodwinked by divisive propaganda. We must not allow ourselves to be divided in two halves.

The most universally understood word across all languages is 'No'. Sometimes you just have to say 'No'.

I challenge you all to give serious thought about the direction of our world, and how it will shape our Fraternity as we go forward.

God Bless you all with much love.

Br. William Sikora III
Senior Warden
